

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS, MINOR

Why Minor in International Relations?

International relations minors are trained to be the liaison between nations. International relations is an interdisciplinary minor designed to train students for careers in global politics. This minor is particularly designed for students who want to work in organizations like the U.S. Departments of State and Defense, the United Nations, and a range of non-governmental organizations. Graduates with an interdisciplinary background will have an advantage on the job market over students from other universities.

Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
Foundation Courses
POL 240	International Relations	3
POL 341	Globalization and International Decision Making	3
Electives
Any 4 IRL electives (may include select POL, HIS, ECN course)		12
Total Credits		18